TO BREAK INTO SOCIETY.

One Must Be Able to Contribute to the General Gayety.

Some one has said that to get into London society you must feed people, amuse people or shock people. In New York, according to Good House-keeping, you must at least attract their attention.

Having once attracted their attention you must make it evident, if you are an outsider, that you have something to bring: Beauty, if it is conspicuous enough; brains, if they are coiled into the small change of social intercourse; money, if you know how to use it.

It is not enough to be well born, well bred, well off, well dressed, well educated. Not a block of the residential parts of New York but is filled with people who are all of these.

There is another requirement in order to be desirable socially, namely, to have something to contribute to the general gayety. Men have grasped this fact in business. A man does not go and ask another for a job on the ground that there is nothing against him. But women seem to feel that an absence of any disqualification should set them in society at once.

Told by the Teeth.

"A man carries a good barometer in his teeth," declares a dentist of large experience. "The teeth are peculiarly affected by damp weather, especially bad teeth. When strangers begin flocking to my consulting room complaining of toothache and pains in the jaw, I know that we are going to have a spell of bad weather. A good bit of it is neuralgia, but is a sure sign."

"This rush of business keeps up until the bad weather is well set in, and when business falls off I know that we shall soon have better weather. When toothache patients are few and far between I am assured that we are in for a spell of fine weather."

The News—No Pure Drug Cough Cure Laws would be needed, if all Cough Cures were like Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure is—and has been for 20 years. The National Law now requires that if any poisons enter into a cough mixture, it must be printed on the label or package. For this reason mothers, and others, should insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. No poison marks on Dr. Shoop's labels—and none in the medicine, else it must by law be on the label. And it's not only safe, but it is said to be by those that know it best, a truly remarkable cough remedy. Take no chance, particularly with your children. Insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Compare carefully the Dr. Shoop package with others and see. No poison marks there! You can always be on the safe side by demanding Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Simply refuse to accept any other sold by all dealers.

We would be pleased to have our readers, and the public generally, send in such items of news as may come under their observation, such as births, deaths, marriages, goings and comings, etc. Many things transpire that we may overlook, hence we ask you to assist us in this matter that we may be able to publish ALL the news.

FOR ONE LONELY VOTER.

Remarkable Election Held in a District in France.

A curious election took place at Les Sables, in the department of the Var, recently, when a single elector drew up the whole list of candidates and was the only one to vote. He naturally voted for his whole list, himself included. The commune contains about 500 inhabitants. Some time ago the municipal council resigned. Elections were held on November 25 last, when only four men came to vote. There was to be a second election last Sunday. The whole day passed and not a solitary voter appeared. A quarter of an hour before the legal limit of time elapsed a benevolent citizen at last appeared, drew up a list of ten candidates, including himself, and voted. A quarter of an hour later the election was declared legally valid, and the other nine candidates were duly notified of their election. They have since declined in a body to be elected by a single vote. The good natured citizen, therefore, who alone voted now constitutes by himself the town council of Les Sables. What is stranger still is that he may invoke a precedent. In fact, on a previous occasion, another citizen was also the sole voter at an election, and voted for himself, remaining legally in office for ten years. This would indicate that political activity is at a low ebb in the Var, and yet the French prime minister, M. Clemenceau, is senator for that department. Perhaps his energy makes up for the negligence of the rest.

Found at Last.
 J. A. Harmon of Limerick, West Va., says: "At last I have found the perfect pill that never disappoints me; and for the benefit of others afflicted with torpid liver and chronic constipation, will say: take Dr. King's New Life Pills. Guaranteed satisfactory. 25c at Ritter Bros. Drug Co."

Temperamental Differences.
 A man will spend a lifetime quarreling with his own heart, whereas a woman can never believe that her heart might be in the wrong.—John Oliver Hobbes (Mrs. Craigie).

BLACK PEOPLE IN PERSIA.

Their Presence is a Puzzle to Learned Ethnologists.

One of the "research men" of the Carnegie Institute at Washington, now traveling in the east, has made an interesting report with reference to the existence in ancient Persia of a race of black-skinned men, who possessed features resembling those of Africans.

The origin of these people, as well as their apparent disappearance in modern times, have furnished puzzling questions for ethnologists for a great many years. Some have supposed that in prehistoric times the greater part of southern Asia was occupied by a primitive black race, of which only vestiges remained when the empires of Babylon and Assyria arose. Later, descendants of the black man who figured in the early history of Persia are believed to have been found by the Russian explorer, Dr. Danjloff, dwelling among the mountains near Shiraz, east of the Persian gulf.

These people, although they still form an independent group, mingle with the surrounding population, as in ancient times, and find employment at long distances from their home. Some of them are to be seen in the city of Teheran.

"Preventics" will promptly check a cold or the Grippe when taken early or at the "sneeze stage." Preventics cure colds as well. Preventics are little candy cold cure tablets, and Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis., will gladly mail you samples and a book on Colds free, if you will write him. The samples prove their merit. Check early colds with Preventics and stop pneumonia. Sold in 5c and 25c boxes by all dealers.

Farming on the Yukon.

W. M. Swinehart has compiled for publication the results of his experience in farming at Fort Selkirk, and these show that, taking one season with another, the crops raised and the prices received for the product are sufficient to cause the average farmer in the states to look to the north with envy, says the Seattle Post-Intelligencer. Oat hay, the chief crop produced, yields about three tons to the acre and sells readily in the spring at from $100 to $125 per ton. Demand has never been lacking, for all the hay the farm produces, since the Dawson-White Horse stage line, on which from 250 to 400 horses are used every winter for several months, passes within a few miles of the farm. Potatoes yield from three to five tons to the acre and bring as much as 25 cents a pound. The average price for a series of years has been a fraction over 20 cents a pound. Rutabagas yield six tons to the acre and sell for 6 cents a pound, or $720 an acre. Carrots yield three tons to the acre and sell for 15 cents a pound, a return of $900 per acre. Cabbages vary in production to season, ranging from three to eight tons to the acre, and the price ranges from 15 to 20 cents a pound. It is an exceptional season when the Swinehart farm does not net its owners an income of $10,000.

Hit Back.

Walking along a road in the remote west of Ireland, two tourists were passing one of the cottages, or, as they are better known in the country, "cabins," of the peasantry. This particular "cabin" was even a more than usually dilapidated specimen of its class, and the chimney, consisting mainly of the remains of an old top hat, presented a comical, if pathetic, appearance.

Tipping his friend a wink, one of the tourists accosted a youth who was sitting contentedly on a fence.

"I say my boy," he said, "does that chimney draw we?"

"Shure, thin, it does," was the prompt reply; "it draws the notice of every fool that passes by!"

Ages of Birds.

The doctrine of vegetarianism appears to be slightly shaken by the result of an investigation made into the subject of the longevity of birds. With one notable exception the carrion, or meat-eating birds, are the longest lived. The exception is the swan. The average ages of the best known birds are in the following list:

Blackbird lives 12 years; blackcap, 15; canary, 24; crane, 24; crow, 100; eagle, 100; fowl (common), 10; goldfinch, 15; goose, 50; heron, 50; lark, 13; linnet, 23; nightingale, 18; parrot, 60; partridge, 15; peacock, 24; pelican, 50; pheasant, 15; pigeon, 20; raven, 100; robin, 12; skylark, 30; sparrowhawk, 40; swan, 100; thrush, 10, and the wren, 3 years.

Welsh Rabbit Fiasco.

"When I was starting my apartment," remembered the bachelor, "several of my lady friends wired me they would bring a small party of people up for Welsh rabbit. I went out and bought a chafing dish, the handsomest I could find; a dozen plates, silver knives and forks and spoons and napkins, and a table to set the rabbit out on, so that the rabbit, which at a restaurant would have cost me about a dollar all told, cost me about $35. And then they didn't come."

Humor in Afghanistan.

Abdurrahman, the late Amir of Afghanistan, had a grim sense of humor, which was sometimes exercised without scruple. On one occasion a durbar he was holding was interrupted by a man who, in a state of the greatest excitement, rushed in declaring that the Russians were advancing to invade Afghanistan.

Turning aside for a moment from the business in progress, the late Amir, in the most unbecoming tones, ordered his Shahgass to conduct the man to the summit of a certain watch tower. "Look you out well for the Russians," commanded Abdurrahman, "for you do not eat until you see them arrive."—Grand Magazine.

Worked Like a Charm.

Mr. D. N. Walker, editor of that spicy journal, the Enterprise, Louisa, Va., says: "I ran a nail in my foot last week and at once applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve. No inflammation followed; the salve simply healed the wound." Heals sores, burns and skin diseases. Guaranteed at Ritter Bros. Drug Co. 25c.
